

Law & Order

BY: Ashley Guillen and Mari Vasquez

Did you hear about nursery rhymes? They are something your mom sang to you when you were small. You may have also heard about what happened to Humpty Dumpty. Well you may also know or have heard about the play Ms. Lampe's drama class is doing. The name of the play is "Law and Order: Nursery Rhymes" and the play was on May 15 and 16. We had the pleasure of interviewing Ms. Lampe. One of the questions we were anxious to ask Ms. Lampe was, "Are you nervous for your students?" Her response was, "No, because I have confidence in them?" We also interviewed Ms. Lampe's students. Some of the students we asked questions to were Nadheska Arreola and Jessica Flores. All the students we asked questions to each have a role in the play. Nadeshka was one of the people that answered our question. The question was "Do you think the play will be a good experience?" Her response was, "Yes, and the reason why I think the play will be a good experience is because so far we have had lots of fun." We also asked Jessica Flores, "Was it hard to learn your lines?" Her exact words were, "It wasn't difficult to learn my lines, it was actually pretty easy." This was all we asked the students. Since our interview the play has happened and the drama class did an amazing job.

Book Fair

By: Joel Casillas and Jesus Felix

We are going to talk about the book fair. The book fair started on April 23, 2018. Many people were wondering where the money that they spend on the books is going. With the money, Mrs. Rice is able to buy books and supplies that the library may need. To reach the goal that the library is trying to reach, she needs $2,500 not including tax. There were books for K-8th grade, like chapter books, picture books, and graphic novels, as well as posters. The library gets the books from Scholastic. The book fair was only open Monday, April 23 through Friday, April 27. They made about $1,300 in reward money from Scholastic to buy books for the library. The best selling books they had was Dog Man and Cat Kid which sold 9 copies. The leftover books have been sent back to Scholastic.

defend or make at least one goal. Roma scores with 6 minutes in the game. It was a goal from Edin Dzeko! Roma is playing and trying hard. They keep on attacking! Goal! The last Dance!

Vamos A Bailar!!!

By: Zuleika Ramirez, Aviana Grijalva, and Ailyn Martinez

On May 11 there was sadly the last and final dance of the school year, another sad thing was that there were not enough students attending the school dance, but enough with the sad things. There were some nice songs this year like, La Chona, La Vaca, Havana, Whip and Nae Nae, All of Me, and Apple Bottom Jeans. We interviewed a student council rep, Jaylin Zepeda, we asked her "what her favorite thing was about the dance?" and her response was that "she likes to see the kids having fun but sadly there wasn't enough students attending." So make sure you come by the dance and have an awesome time at the dance with your friends. So let's all come to the dance next school year and have fun.

Dress Code

By Irvin and Ezequiel

Tipton school has always had a dress code, but it has changed over the years. Well, the dress code we compared was from 2010 to this school year. (Thanks to Mrs. Bettencourt we were able to get a copy of the 2010 dress code.) What is the difference between the current one 2017-2018 and 2010? First the major difference is what we were able to wear. So, in the 2010 you would only be able to wear collared shirts and the colors that they could wear were white, gray, or black. The shorts or pants that we would be able to wear had to be blue, black, or tan colored and the shorts wouldn't be able to be above the knee. Then, you wouldn't be able to have company logos on pants or shorts. What if you wanted to wear a belt? The belts would have to be either in the colors black, white, or tan. What if you want to wear a leather belt? The only colors they could be were brown or black. Plus the belt buckles have to be plain with no writing. They had to tuck in their shirts for safety purposes. This is the same for the boys and girls, but the girls can wear skirts but the color would have to be blue, black, or tan.

This was changed and now we have the dress code that we have now.

So, now let us talk about our current dress code.

What can we wear that is school appropriate? You can't wear clothing with north, south, college teams, or any sports logo. All the clothing and materials with old English or similar lettering will not be allowed. Also, you can't use makeup and fake or acrylic nails in grades kindergarten through 6th. Head covers will not be allowed as well as bandanas and hats that are gang related. Students may not wear shoes with back straps, flip flops, cleats, high heel, Heelys/sports skate shoes, or slippers. These are a few of the dress codes for 2017-2018.

The one that many students have an issue with this year is about the wearing of ripped jeans and how people would wear them even though they aren't allowed. Did you know that there is a way you can wear them? All you have to do is wear leggings under them or if it comes already with something behind it, it will be accepted.

So which one do you prefer our current dress code or go back to a uniform? The dress code could be changed back to the restrictions that they had before, would you want that or to be able to have the freedom to wear what we do now?

8th Grade Trip

By: Emmanuel Salcedo Dario Perez

As you may know the 8th graders have gone on a trip to San Francisco. The 8th-graders left on the 1st of May at 5:15 a.m. and they returned on the 2nd of May at 9:30 p.m. On this trip they went to Alcatraz, a Giants Game, the Golden Gate Bridge, Pier 39, and Stanford University. They stayed at a hotel named Zephyr and they arrived at the hotel at 4:45 p.m. The Giants Game was at 7:15 p.m. They put on shirts and hoodies that say Tigers with an image of a tiger on the front and back. The Giants sadly didn't win the game. The 8th-graders also went to Stanford University at 10:45 a.m. and then ate at Tresidder Union an hour later after arriving. The trip to Hoover Tower was canceled due to early close. When they went to Alcatraz they saw a lot of seagulls. They also saw the cells where the prisoners stayed, the showers, and also they saw the warrant's office. They learned that some officers that worked there lived there! In the hotel there was two beds, a mini fridge, one shower, and a TV. Since they were running short they had to eat dinner on the way home. Overall, the 8th graders had a fantastic trip!

Are you ready to go on a trip?

By: Gloria Alvarado and Marleny Gonzalez

Are you ready to go on a field trip? Well there's been some field trips going on and we are going to tell you about these field trips. The kindergarteners went to the Sequoia National Park on April 27. We asked 2 kindergarteners, "What did you learn on the field trip?" We asked Melissa and she said, "There was a big Sequoia tree." We also asked Jesus and he said, "There was lots of big trees."

The second graders went to Agventures on April 27. Then we asked 2 second graders, "What do you think your going to see on your field trip?" We asked Jenavi and she said, "I might see animals and benches." We also asked George and he said, "I might see trees and birds." Another question we asked was "What did you learn on your field trip to Agventures?" Jenavi said, "We learned how to milk cows and about tractors and how people did stuff a long time ago". We asked George and he said, "We learned about tractors, cows, and we went on a hunt to find answers".

The fourth graders are going to mission Juan Bautista on May 25. Then we asked 2 fourth graders, "What do you think your going to learn?" We asked Susana and she said, " About the adobe bricks." We also asked Emilio and he said, "When the mission was made and the adobe bricks." These are all the field trips that were going on in April and May.

School Shooting

By: Hector Cruz and Valerio Salas

Did you know on average there is about 1 school shooting every week in the United States (according to CNN) So, when I was on a hunt for information I came across Mrs. Alvarez. She was kind enough to let me interview her, but to be honest she was surprised I had even asked her if I could. Before I was able to ask her my 4 questions she asked me if I had known that she had been in a school shooting. My response was "Really?" She said "Yes." I was shocked and happy she was alive. I was happy because she is a wonderful woman and she was able to share her story with me. She had told me that when the shooting started, she thought they were fireworks. Her parents taught her well and told her that she was not able to leave school without her sister. She was brave to go back for her sister. Later that day she went home and saw the news. She was in shock to know there was a shooting. Her friend got shot in the hip and a janitor died protecting a little girl, sadly she died as well.

This is the reason we have drills and practice for these events, you never know what's going to happen. All in all, this was a very upsetting story to listen to but, thanks for listening.

Lip Sync

By: Jonathon Mendoza and Jonathon Flores

The Friday Night Live Lip Sync contest was on April 13, 2018, at 4:45 - 10:00 p.m. We asked some people of what they thought about going to the lip sync contest. We talked to Landon Aguire and asked him if he went to lip sync contest and he said, "Yes because I'm in student council and they always attend the lip sync contest." We spoke with Angel Gonzalez and he had told us that all of the student council attended as well as Mrs. Liua's group. The people that had performed at the lip sync contest were Margaret Arambala, Angel Verduzco, Jaylin Zepeda, and Isabela Moreno. All of them are part of student council. We also asked Mrs. Gilbert how many acts there were in total and she told us that there were 42. Mrs. Liua's hula group performed and got 2nd place. The kids in the hula group were Alondra, Maria Jose Carmina, Evelyn Martin, Juan, and Kella. There were also different songs that were sung by different groups. The genre of the songs were pop, rock, and country. There were also different schools that went to the lip sync contest. Sundale, Tipton, Monsen Santana, and many more attended the Lip Sync Contest.
