Are you ready for the Museum of Tolerance? Based on the opinion of a few students, the Museum of Tolerance was a sad and shocking experience that students in 7th grade endured. This museum was made to show people how to tolerate and understand, like it says in the name. It also tells you about concentration camps like Auschwitz, where they would take people in and make them work until they couldn't any more. Some survivors also visit the museum and tell you what they experienced during the holocaust which is a sad event that happened during World War II. The survivor might teach you about his/her experience during the holocaust. Some students were asked questions like, were you shocked about what you heard and they responded, "yes, I was really shocked about how much deaths there were." They were also asked, what was your favorite part of the museum and their response was, "the Diner."

The Diner is a place where they quiz you to try to find out the person who is responsible for the death of a teen. Lastly they were asked did you enjoy the trip and they stated, "Yeah." If you haven't been to the Museum of Tolerance, well then you should go visit it.

sixth grade on vacation

SCICON is the outdoor school of science and conservation. Sixth grade went on vacation to SCICON. We asked some sixth graders some questions before they went to Scicon, and these were their answers. The first question we asked was, "Why are you excited to go to SCICON?" Mariana answered, "because people say it's going to be snowing up there!" We also asked Natalie Juarez, "Are you going to be scared to be away from home?" She exclaimed, "No, because I get some time alone, get away from doing chores and get away from my annoying family." What are you 6th graders most excited about? Isamar replied, "I am excited about seeing the animals and the snow." Stephanie responded to the question about what she thought SCICON was going to be like. She thought it would be boring, but kind of exciting at the same time.

After sixth grade came back from SCICON we asked some of the same and a few different questions. Juan Cruz was asked if it was what he expected. "No, it was not what I expected, at the beginning it was boring, but then it got a little bit fun." Natalie Jimenez, "Did you make friends?" "I met people, but I wouldn't consider them my friends, because I didn't know them like that." Natalie Juarez, "Did you like your cabin?" "Yes, but it was too hot!" Juan Cruz, "Did you like the food?" "Sure I like the food, but it didn't have any flavor like the eggs and the mashed potatoes."

Overall SCICON was really interesting, we learned a lot of new stuff and some of us made new friends. Though I complained the WHOLE time it was fun. Some of us will miss SCICON and some of us won't.

very first game was against Sunnyside JV boys and lost 11 to 4. Varsity won the game

“The idea is not to block every shot. The idea is to make your opponent believe that you might block every shot” by Bill Russel. JV and varsity basketball teams have been playing games each Friday at around 1:00 p.m, against Sunnyside. Pixley and also Sundale. Our

23 to 17. We also had a tournament in Pixley and played against Pixley, St. Aloysius, and Sundale, we got in 2nd place so overall we did pretty good. On February 23, the Varsity boys and girls had a tournament in Tulare Western at 9.a.m. The boys played against Sunnyside, Oak Valley, and St.Paul, they got 3rd place in the tournament.

We all gave our best and should be proud of our teams. We had a good team this year and perhaps some day we can win 1st place. Victor, Genaro, Zuriel, Landon, and Eyan were the starting line up, and the substitution were Kendrick, Alejandro, Jose, Ezequiel, Everardo, Santiago, and Cesar. People who got the Victory with honor pin were Cesar and Landon. “Look in the mirror, and that's your competition.”

“Hands up” by: Alessandra Contreras

To start off the basketball season, J.V girls first game was on January 18th VS Sunnyside, this was a home game. Before the game the J.V girls said that they were nervous to play the first game. At first, the J.V girls were winning ,but at last ,Sunnyside took the win. The score was 4-2. For the first game the girls didn't do bad because they only lost by 2 points. The girls were playing very good at the game and they tried their hardest. Our second game we had was on January 25th VS Pixley this was a away game. According to Alisson she said “ I felt nervous and excited because it was our second game.” Pixley wasn't hard, but the girls needed just a little help. Our third game was against Sundale and it was a away game. The girls did really good. According to Mrs.Magana she said “ the girls did good during basketball season ,they just need to learn how to play their position, but overall they did good.” This year Mrs.Magana had 20 girls on her team. The girls were Monserrat Langraica, Katherine Vejar, Valeria Hernandez, Ailyn Martinez, Alazay Torres, Alessandra Contreras, Aviana Grijalva, Alisson Ceron, Leslie Magana, Neayah Perez, Zulieka Ramirez, Ashley Rodriguez, Jasmine Tejeda, Cathy Soto, Isamar Gomez, Lupita Mendez, Isabella Tayahua, Lizzeth Gutierrez, Stephanie Canchola, and Leslie Mendez. She had one team that played all the time and another team that just practiced with them. Also did you know that Mrs.Nuckols took 5 girls from the J.V team to the tournament. Mrs.Magana had picked the girls which were Leslie Magana, Ailyn Martinez, Alessandra Contreras, Katherine Vejar, and Neayah Perez. Mrs.Nuckels said, “they did really well because they have good basketball skills” and that she is excited for next year. The girl who scored the most points was Leslie Magana she was a center. The person who got the pins were Leslie Banelos and Alisson Ceron. Also big thanks to Blanca Cruz for helping us coach the Jv team.

If you shoot your shot will you miss? By: Ailyn Martinez

“RUN A PLAY!!!!” Varsity team sign ups were Friday, December 17th, 2018. We held our first home game which was against Sunnyside. According to the Varsity girls team before the game started they were nervous to play, but still didn't doubt themselves. “What motivated you to sign up?” Marley's response was “My friends.” We also asked her what game does she think she improved on, her response, “It was the Pixley game.” Did you know that Varsity girls did not win one game, but improved every game. “Basketball is such an escape from a lot of things”-Scottie Pippen. We also asked the Varsity girls coach Mrs. Nuckols, what she thinks the girls can improve on, “Basketball skills in general.” she said. We also asked her who were the girls who got the victory with honor pins, “This year we had several students who earned the victory with honor pins Lizbeth R, Marleny G, Jessica F, Maria M.” We hope you sign up for basketball next year because it was a very fun experience.

Meet Blanca Cruz by: Victor Martinez, Zuriel Cruz, and Jose Pena

Can you guess which parent volunteers the most? Meet Blanca Cruz she's the parent who has volunteered the most. The reason why she volunteers a lot is because Tipton is a part of her community and likes to give back to her community. She knows a lot about sports because she's been around sports since she was little and she enjoys them. One of the main reasons she likes coaching is because that's the way she tries to give back to her community and she wants her children to participate. She wants to help the team by leading them in a positive way. Blanca states her favorite sport is soccer because it's the sport she played the most. Last year, during soccer season Blanca and the team played all the local teams and stayed invictus (undefeated and unconquerable). Blanca and the team went to the soccer tournament and won 1st place. Blanca also helped JV girls basketball. She went to all the games and to all the practices. She helped the girls improve during their games, Blanca showed the girls that anything is possible. Ailyn stated, “Blanca taught me what a rebound was.” Blanca has helped Tipton school improve in many ways. We're thankful to have a parent like her!

Dancing with a tiger by: Aviana Grijalua

On Friday, February 8, there was a school dance. I asked a couple of sixth and seventh grade, what they thought about the dance. Alisson Ceron said she liked the dance. We had also asked her what her favorite part was? She stated, “I liked when Aaron sang.” Many students think they could've had better songs and more Spanish music. The DJ would have played Spanish songs, if we asked. The dance was really fun students were dancing and singing. The fifth graders seemed like they were having a good time ,every time we would walk around we would see the fifth graders dancing and singing. We also asked a couple of other students what they thought about the pictures ,most of them had said just have better props. Over all the dance was really exciting and a lot of us had fun. There will be another dance this year on May 10th.

“I’ve always been an Underdog, I feel like I beat the odds” by: Maria Martinez and Isabel Cisneros

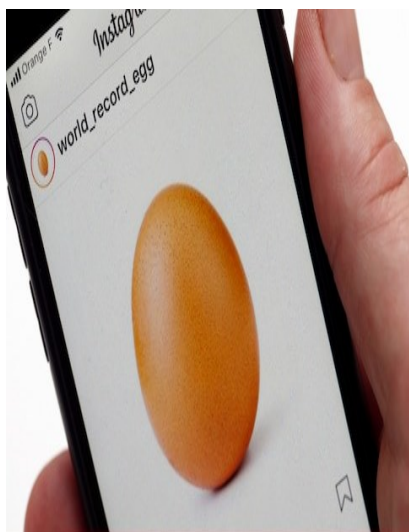

Rapper and songwriter J.Cole, was born Jermaine Lamar Cole, in Frankfurt, Germany ,but grew up in Fayetteville North Carolina. He was the first rapper signed to Jay Z’s Roc Nation Label. His album, Cole World: Sideline Story was on the Billboard 200. He was rising to popularity and began to lose himself in all the fame and wealth he was receiving. In the beginning of his rap career, he started to feel the need to impress people and let critics get to him and let his ego take over. In 2014, he released a music video called “Intro” on his album Forest Hills Drive where he shows himself riding a bike around New York City. He recorded himself on a nighttime bike ride as he sings about doing what makes you happy instead of feeling pressured to compete against people for wealth and power. He is also a very humble person and is rarely seen in the public eye or even on social media. He said in a interview with Complex that his top priorities are music and family.

Eugene the egg by: Victor Lopez ,and Gonzalo

Eugene the egg. Ring a bell? Well if you don’t know, you’ve been living under a rock. Eugene is the name of an egg posted on Instagram intending to beat Kylie Jenner’s post that got over 19 million likes. On February 6, 2018, Kylie Jenner posted a picture of her holding her newborn daughter, Stormi Webster’s hand on Instagram. That post soon became the post on Instagram with the most likes. “When Chris Godfrey learned in early January that the record for “likes” on an Instagram post was held by the celebrity and businesswoman Kylie Jenner, he took it as a challenge.” According to www.nytimes.com, “So, he had an idea and that idea was to post an egg, hoping to beat Kylie’s post. The egg post has over 52 million likes and the account has over 10 million followers.” As you can see, the egg beat Kylie Jenner’s post and is an event that will most likely be remembered for a very long time.

Fortnite is hot garbage by: Emmanuel Andrade, and Mauricio Sanchez

“Fortnite is so overrated,” said 8th grader, Dario Perez. When Epic games first released their game Fortnite on September 26, 2017, no one paid attention to it, until twitch streamers (gamers who live stream their gameplay or talk) and youtubers (people who upload videos on YouTube) played and promoted the game. Eduardo, Cesar, and Emanuel all think it’s a waste of money to buy something, it gives you nothing. “Legendary” skins are $20! Emotes are $2-8, gliders are $5-20, and pickaxes are $5-15! If you did challenges in season 7, you would get a season 8 battle pass for free. It turns out, Fortnite has already stolen Apex legends ping system according to www.thegamer.com. Fortnite is a trend and will die soon, as a matter of fact, it is already dying even though season 9 hasn’t came out. Apex already has more viewers on twitch than Fortnite according to www.polygon.com. So, R.I.P.

Award winning student

On Saturday, February 16 @ 1:00pm Sixth grader ,Stephanie Canchola was given an award for first place for participating in a writing contest for DAR (Daughters of the American Revolution.) Stephanie, her family and Mrs. Magana went to Porterville where they heard her read her story to a crowd of about 40 people. She wrote about Women's Suffrage imagining what life would be like in 1919. She won first place! She accepted a medal, money and a certificate.

Anyone in 5-8th grade can participate, see Mrs. Magana if you would like to enter next year.

The Super bowl by: Kendrick Torres, Oscar Avalos, and Dario Perez

Did you watch the superbowl? It was crazy. On Sunday, February 3, 2019 because It was Super Bowl day, everyone was cheering for their team, Patriots vs Rams. Everyone was nervous, but the ones who were really nervous were the players that were on the Patriots and Rams teams. How do you think the super bowl went? The total score was 13-3, the Patriots took the win. The game went in history for scoring the least amount of points in a super bowl. The super bowl 53 had an attendance of 70,081 ,which is a lot of people. Now how many commercials were in the superbowl? There were around 53 ads. The amount of money that was spent was around 130,000 million dollars. We asked some students around school if they enjoyed watching the superbowl and some said yes while others said no. For example, we interviewed Alejandro Ambriz and we asked him what he thought about the super bowl. One of his thoughts were that this super bowl was one of the lowest scoring games in the NFL Super Bowl history.

Can You Spell Megalopolis without a Dictionary?

Miranda Loza 5th grade, Maria Jose Sanchez 7th grade, and Hesner Sosa (alternate) 5th grade all went to the 20th annual Tulare county spelling championship on Wednesday, February 20th. Although they were both out in the first round, Miranda misspelled graffiti and Maria misspelled megalopolis they were brave enough to get up and give it their all to represent Tipton. We are proud of them for going and representing our school. Great job Miranda and Maria!
